

NEW ALBANY

Labor Day in New Albany passed off quietly, the parade in the forenoon being a most creditable demonstration though not quite so extensive as a year ago. This seems to have been the fate of parades all over the country. Afternoon the steamer Hiawatha carried the crowds to Riverview Park where the balance of the day and evening was spent in listening to music, dancing, boating, social intercourse and such other amusements as the Park affords.

A report of financial results will be made to the Trades and Labor Council at the earliest opportunity. A more extended mention is deferred until next issue, after the committees have made their reports.

(NOTE.—New Albany news was delayed in transmission this week, and was not received until too late for publication. We regret that the same thing happened to our Jeffersonville correspondence.—Ed.)

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

—F. T. C. Thursday night, Sept. 15.

—Mrs. J. E. Merrick and family of five children are visiting friends at White Mills, Ky.

—Harry A. Wellington, "one of the finest" among the printers, has been at home on a visit for a couple of weeks.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Stey have left for St. Louis to see the great show. Mr. Stey is the popular steward at the Farmers' Home.

—If you want to see that friend of yours win in the WORKER popularity contest you must do some hustling for him. The hustler wins.

—Get in those votes, boys, or the man you have been "pulling" for may be short a couple of hundred at the wind-up. You would regret this.

—John N. Smith, of the WORKER office force, spent Sunday with relatives and friends at Danville, Ky. They say John's best girl lives in Danville.

—A New Albany "dark horse," far from the lead in the contest, is tipped to make a dash in the quarter-stretch and win the prize trip to St. Louis.

—Chas. Harris, of the Stovemounter's Union, complains that it is indeed laborious, and feels fatigued from riding his mare last Monday during the parade.

—The attempt to withdraw the representation of L. T. U. No. 10 from the Federated Trades Council resulted in sending three more delegates to that body.

—The Ice Wagon Drivers' Union of Philadelphia announces that it will continue its fight against the sale of ice on Sunday by taking a test case to higher courts.

—Mr. Ed. Evinger, editor of The Toller at Terre Haute, Ind., is the proud papa of twin babies—both girls. Mrs. Evinger and the babies are doing well, and the doctor says that Ed is out of danger and will recover.

—Only fourteen delegates in attendance at meetings of the Louisville Federation of Labor is not very much of a compliment to the charter issued by the A. F. of L., when a year ago the meetings were attended by a hundred or more.

—Mr. Frank Reiss, of Greensburg, Pa., is in the city on business. Mr. Reiss is a sheet metal worker, and has been at work at Greensburg for three years. His many friends in this city were pleased to learn that he has been in good health and doing nicely.

—We are glad to announce the rapid recovery of Mr. E. O. Barclay, whose serious illness from an attack of typhoid fever has been mentioned in these columns. Mr. Barclay is able to be up and came down town Labor Day for the first time since he has taken sick.

—Jacob Mouth, foreman of the Wilcox cigar factory, and Wm. Dandistel, member of Cigarmakers' No. 32, have been spending a week or so at the World's Fair. They will be able to tell the boys in the contest about the great things at the Fair when they return.

—Frank C. Montfort, who formerly worked in this city in various printing offices, was shaking hands with old friends here a few days at the end last week. He is now located in Chicago, his family being there also, and Frank holds a nice position with one of the large print shops.

—Woman's Auxiliary to L. T. U. No. 10 holds a regular meeting next Thursday afternoon, at which a full attendance of the members is desired to take action on new laws which are made necessary by amendments to the International Constitution adopted at the St. Louis convention.

—The union label is the unmistakable sign of practical co-operation between employers and employees. The demand for the union label completes the relationship necessary to the most effective practice of co-operation by making the purchaser also a partner in the business.—Union Reporter.

—John Karlen stirred up a little feeling among his friends last week by giving a smoker to only a chosen few. However, it is the sweet consolation of his admirers who were slighted in this treat that perhaps the "brand of smokers" (cigars) would not agree with them. So says one who thinks he knows.

—The occupants of the hack representing the Allied Printing Trades Council in the parade last Monday experienced a slight shake up which was caused through the carelessness of the driver from the Louisville Transfer Co., who followed the A. P. T. C. carriage. The parade was subjected to frequent stops, when the transfer driver proceeded with his team and drove the tongue of his hack into the back of the aforesaid vehicle.

—Under the caption, "Don't Pay High Prices for Meats," an Illinois butcher advertises the following prices for "home-killed" meats. Louisville house-keepers would have a fit if they should strike anything like it. The prices are as follows: Best sirloin and porterhouse steak 12 1-2 cts. lb.; best round steak, 11 cts; best shoulder steak, 10 cts; best rib roast, 10 cts; pot roast, 9 cts; pork chops, 13 cts; pork steak, 11 cts; best home-made lard, 10 cts. lb.

—The Louisville colony of printers in Chicago has been augmented during the past few months by the addition of "Billy" Connell and Mrs. Connell, Tom Bailey, Ed. Owen, H. A. Woolf, Frank McQuie, Bud Lawless, Joe King, "Jimmy" Shae, F. C. Montfort, Geo. Zimmerman, Ed. Johnson, Ed. Quinn, J. W. Griffith, all of whom, so the WORKER is informed, are holding satisfactory positions. Their host of Kentucky friends will be glad to know this, and, of course, hope their good fortune may never desert them.

—A Chicago spotter for the Typothetae, who claims to have been in Louisville during the printers' strike in behalf of his "owners," told a union printer in the Windy City recently that "the Louisville Union has the fight won to-day if they only knew it—but it isn't my business to tell them." It happened that he was talking to one of the boys who had gone through the late struggle, and who fully agreed with Mr. Spotter in the statement made by him. "Spot" wasn't aware of the fact that he was talking to a union man, but believed his new-found friend to be a long-tailed rat from the East. Hence the outburst of confidence. Local printers well understand the situation, and they know how their victory was turned into apparent defeat. When the proper time arrives "they do say" there will be something doing in regard to it, too.

Side Lights on Men and Things

(BY THE LOCUST.)

My corpulent friend, Joe Roberts, never misses a meeting of No. 10 unless he has an important engagement with his tonsorial artist or to visit Jacob Park, or some other old park. Joe is a great walker—for his health.

Vice-President F. W. Bonte will some day fill the throne of No. 10. Fred is taking lessons and carries a manual, not military, but on rules and law. He has the backbone required to make an officer of the bar.

The Herald's Chapel Chairman, R. K. Van Pelt, is one of the boys that gets what he goes after and knocks the persimmon every time. "Van" represented No. 10 at the St. Louis Convention with credit to himself and his union. He was the right figure in the right place.

My distinguished friend, "Senator" Kane, met with a Waterloo at No. 10's meeting. The Union would not allow his bill of charges to stand. "Johnnie," old boy, the war is over. "United we stand, divided we fall"—go agagin' for union enemies, not union men.

I'm glad to see my old sure-enough friend, "Jimmie" H. Watson, at No. 10's meetings. "Jim," like all of us, has his cranky ways and fanits, but he is conscientious.

"Jonny" Owen likes to see all the boys (with money for cards). He must feel that his pro tem job is a hard punching bag. If he did, could you blame him? Nave!

Old No. 10 has done many good things since its organization, Feb. 2, 1852. Chief among them she has been instrumental in the establishment of an up-to-the-minute, handsome and progressive weekly labor paper, and the formation of a "sure-enough central body" composed only of union card delegates.

It is not always good diplomacy on the part of the executive officers or Board of Directors of a union to let the "cat out of the bag" as to what is doing to the general membership. Street corner discussions, nine cases out of ten, bring warning into the enemy's camp.

My old friend "Ed" Cronk was forced to admit that he was "somewhat prejudiced" in the Federated Trades Council and Louisville Federation of Labor combat. "An honest confession is good for the soul" and business "makes strange bed fellows."

My left hand bower, "Johnny" Stack, is one of the good natured fellows that takes "resolution defeat" with a light heart and a smiling face; in fact, the "fat boy" can't do otherwise, his facial expression is always the same—smiling.

The Woggle Bug at No. 10's last Sunday's meeting said most emphatically that the Federated Trades Council is a lively, healthy be(e)ing, which carries a stinger that sharply punctures the decaying carcass of the old lady lately christened "Louisville Federation of Labor."

Machinists Will Give Smoker.

Falls City Lodge No. 205 will give a smoker on Wednesday night, September 21st, to which all machinists in the city are urgently invited. This includes both members and those who are not members of No. 205.

A few brief addresses is proposed as a feature of the evening, and a general good time is expected.

Cigarmakers No. 32.

Cigarmakers' Union No. 32 has been honored by the International Executive Board by being selected to elect one member from its ranks to go to Chicago in the capacity of auditor to audit the accounts of the International office.

Mr. Herman Hoffman, Register Clerk, is on the sick list and confined to his bed by an attack of pleurisy and bronchitis. At last accounts he was getting along nicely, and it is hoped he will soon be out.

Mr. Jos. W. Grimme, Treasurer, is sick, suffering from nervous trouble. Mr. Grimme is one of No. 32's foremost members, and an active worker in the trades union movement, being both conservative and reliable. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

The Regular meeting of No. 32 was held in Germania Hall Wednesday night. This being the first meeting in the month there was a large attendance, President L. J. Kieffer presiding. After routine business was disposed of a committee of ladies from the Garment Workers' Union were admitted and introduced by Organizer John Stevens. They were there in the interest of a eulchre to be given by their local Friday night and left a number of tickets which the union purchased. Secretary Herman Christen was elected to represent the union on the Auditing Board, to audit the accounts of the International office. He will leave for Chicago on Wednesday.

Mr. Nat Leonberger, a prominent member of No. 32, has returned home after an extended visit to relatives and friends in Missouri. He took in the World's Fair.

Where Will He Land Next?

National officers of the Bill Posters Union have given Peetz thirty days to get out of their Louisville local—the statements in Peetz's weekly paper to the contrary notwithstanding.

By-the-way, it turns out that Peetz is the man that has been going among the business men of the city and representing that entire harmony prevails in the Louisville labor movement, that there is but one central body. It is a painful fact that there is not a word of truth in such allegations. There can be no harmony until UNION men take hold of the movement and put the fakirs, like Peetz and his gang, out of it.

We want to warn the business community against giving Peetz any business for the account of the OHIO VALLEY WORKER. We most seriously object to having the good name of the WORKER prostituted in this manner. And Peetz is warned also that he must not leave the inference with business men that business secured from them is intended for the WORKER. By such course he lays himself liable to prosecution, and if persisted in he may expect to have the law upon him.
